Dear Mr Alozaibi

Thank you for the application for an assessment of your engineering qualifications, and for the Competency Demonstration Report (CDR) you have provided.

I am pleased to advise that the competencies you have demonstrated taken in conjunction with your qualifications from NED University of Engineering and Technology completed in January 1992 have been assessed as meeting the current academic requirement for standing as a Professional Engineer (Skill Level 1) in Australia. The appropriate occupational classification in your case for migration purposes is Civil Engineer ANZSCO 233211.

Your above qualification has been assessed as broadly comparable to an Australian Bachelor degree for the purposes of awarding points for qualifications under the General Skilled Migration points test.

Yours sincerely
