

Abdulelah Aldubaykhi

☎ 0500483305

✉ abdulelahm13@gmail.com

Career Objective

Driven and curious engineer with experience in construction and materials testing. I'm looking to join a team where I can learn more and contribute to real world projects. I believe in clear and effective communication, safe work practices, and staying organized. Always ready to take responsibility and support team members to get the job done right.

Education

- Bachelor of Science in Civil Engineering – December 2021
The University of Alabama
- Master of Science in Engineering Management – December 2024
The University of Tennessee

Experience

Building envelope inspector at Engineering Consultant Services LLC (ECS), May 2022-May 2023.
Richmond, VA, USA

Responsibilities Include:

- Testing and consulting services for the built environment, property condition assessments, specialized testing, building envelope consulting, forensic investigation analysis
- Exhibiting responsibility, organization, reliability, time management, and self-motivation
- Performing field and laboratory testing
- Documenting observations daily in written field reports
- Reading and understanding of construction documents, details and specifications
- Understanding of technical testing and evaluation process
- Promoting a safe workplace and proper use of PPE
- Scheduling and oversight of facilities technicians
- Administrative duties
- Ability to work effectively in teams, with clients, contractors, peers, and subordinates

Skills, software and certifications

- Field and Laboratory Testing
- Property Condition Assessments
- Building Enclosure Consulting
- Time Management and Organizational Skills
- Safety Promotion, PPE Usage and Risk Management
- Collaboration and Project Coordination
- MS PowerPoint, MS Excel, MSWord and MS Power BI
- OSHA 10