

AFZAL SAMI

QA/QC CIVIL ENGINEER

Tabuk, Tabuk Province, Saudi Arabia | engrsamii366@gmail.com | 0542790833

PROFILE

Experienced Civil Engineer with over 6 years of expertise in the construction industry. Skilled in ensuring compliance with quality standards, conducting inspections, and implementing corrective actions. Proven ability to lead quality control initiatives, collaborate with cross-functional teams, and deliver projects on time and within budget. A detail-oriented professional dedicated to maintaining the highest quality standards throughout the construction process.

WORKING EXPERIENCE

QA/QC Civil Engineer, Arab Trading & Supply Company (ASTRA)

Jul 2023 — Present

Responsibilities:

- Ensuring that all construction activities utilize approved materials and processes.
- Identifying deviations and promptly generating corrective action reports.
- Providing technical guidance and effectively resolving on-site issues.
- Compiling accurate progress reports and maintaining detailed records for QC inspections.
- Supervising project sites to ensure strict adherence to technical designs and specifications.
- Developing method statements and quality control procedures to enhance execution efficiency.
- Coordinating with subcontractors and conducting on-site inspections to uphold quality and safety standards.
- Maintaining meticulous records of inspection and testing activities.
- Verifying the quality and compliance of concrete during pouring and testing processes.
- Documenting test results and systematically recording compliance data.
- Generating detailed closeout reports that highlight observations and non-conformance issues.
- Addressing non-conformances and implementing necessary corrective actions.
- Obtaining missing information through Requests for Information (RFIs) as required.

QA/QC Civil Engineer, Creative Edge Design

Apr 2021 — May 2023

Associates (CEDA)

Responsibilities:

- Ensure accurate implementation of technical designs and drawings, manage project sites, and supervise subcontractors' work.
- Conduct on-site inspections to ensure quality and safety compliance, and perform pre-inspections of site work and materials.
- Maintain records of reports, test results, and documents, while collaborating with other departments to coordinate site activities.
- Provide technical advice and resolve on-site issues, update logs, and conduct concrete tests.
- Oversee various quality control tests, ensuring precise implementation of designs on site.
- Manage and supervise project sites, coordinating with other departments to facilitate smooth site activities.
- Conduct on-site inspections, pre-inspections of materials, and witness tests to maintain quality control.
- Maintain records of reports and test results, offering technical advice and resolving on-site issues.
- Coordinate with other departments to ensure accurate implementation of technical designs.

Responsibilities:

- Develop and enforce comprehensive quality control strategies, protocols, and policies for construction projects.
- Conduct regular assessments on materials, equipment, and procedures to ensure strict adherence to industry standards.
- Perform on-site inspections to oversee construction progress and verify alignment with design specifications.
- Coordinate effectively with architects, contractors, and suppliers to facilitate smooth project execution.
- Monitor construction advancement vigilantly, addressing issues promptly to uphold the highest quality standards.
- Scrutinize project blueprints, including cost projections and timelines, to optimize project efficiency.
- Ensure strict compliance with safety regulations and protocols at the construction site.
- Skillfully manage project budgets, track expenses meticulously, and make cost-effective decisions.
- Provide valuable technical expertise and guidance to the construction team throughout the project lifecycle.
- Conduct inspections to promptly identify and rectify any construction flaws.
- Collaborate closely with regulatory authorities to secure necessary permits and approvals.
- Maintain accurate and comprehensive project documentation, including detailed drawings and reports, for reference and meticulous record-keeping.

Civil Site Engineer, AGES ConsultantApr 2018 — Jun 2019*Responsibilities:

- Oversee and supervise construction activities on the site.
- Execute on-site implementation of construction drawings.
- Coordinate project tasks with the Project Manager and construction team.
- Provide regular construction status reports to the Project Manager and Head Office.
- Develop and implement construction plans and building layouts.
- Estimate material quantities and calculate costs.
- Supervise concrete works and conduct necessary tests.
- Manage and oversee labor activities, evaluating performance.
- Monitor, log, and record progress of on-site work.
- Perform all tasks as required for the position.
- Conduct calculations for quantities and costing.
- Prepare daily and monthly progress reports.
- Provide site supervision and monitor construction work schedules.

EDUCATION

CECOS university Of IT And Emerging Sciences Pakistan

Bachelor of engineering, Civil Engineering

Recognized by PEC

SOFTWARE SKILLS

MS Office & outlook Auto cad

E tab SAFE

SAP 200

Power-point

Internet surfing and email

TECHNICAL SKILLS

Skilled in interpreting architectural and engineering drawings, ensuring accurate implementation of designs on site.

Knowledgeable in construction methods, materials, and techniques, facilitating effective decision-making during the construction process.

Experienced in overseeing and managing construction activities, ensuring compliance with specifications, codes, and regulations.

Proficient in conducting quality inspections and tests to ensure adherence to project standards and specifications.

Experienced in monitoring and controlling project progress, identifying and resolving any deviations or delays.

Knowledgeable in implementing health and safety protocols on construction sites, ensuring a safe working environment for all personnel.

Skilled in conducting site measurements and surveys for quantity verification and verification of as-built conditions.

Proficient in managing and resolving technical issues and conflicts that may arise during the construction process.

Experienced in coordinating with design professionals and stakeholders to clarify technical requirements and resolve design-related issues.

Knowledgeable in implementing sustainable construction practices, ensuring environmentally responsible and resource efficient projects.

Proficient in preparing and reviewing technical reports, construction documents, and specifications for accuracy and completeness.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION:

PEC NO

55564

SEC NO

1031321

IQAMA

Transferable

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

• Languages:

Urdu (Native or Bilingual Proficiency)

Arabic (Professional Working Proficiency)

English (Professional Working Proficiency)