

Sleem Kamel Sleem Ghanem

Address: SaudiRiyad / Phone: 0539596184 / Email: sleemeldal@gmail.com

BRIEF SUMMARY:

Construction Manager with over 15 years of experience and a strong background in Civil Engineering. Skilled in project execution through continuous learning and practical application of professional principles and development requirements across various civil engineering sectors.

Personal Information:

Bachelor's Degree: Civil Engineering, Al-Azhar University, 2010

Date of Birth: 25/07/1982

Residence: Valid residency in Saudi Arabia

Nationality: Egyptian

Driving License: Saudi Arabia

Marital Status: Married

Languages: Arabic (Native), English (Good)

Administrative & Personal Skills:

Time management and prioritization of tasks

Ability to work under pressure and on-site

Strong communication skills and teamwork

Attention to detail and accuracy

Coordination between work teams and contractors

Problem-solving and on-site decision-making

Technical Skills:

Proficient in Microsoft Office (Word, Excel, PowerPoint)

Skilled in AutoCAD; able to prepare and read execution and structural drawings

Ability to review and modify drawings using engineering design software

Reading and analyzing engineering plans and handling execution drawings

Quantity surveying and preparation of payment certificates

Work Experience:

Ministry of Water Resources and Irrigation – NDGR Project (2023 – 2025)

Position: Consultant – Owner Representative

Consultant: Sanyu Consultants INC (Japan)

Contractor: Dai Nippon Construction (Japan)

Project Details:

Construction of 2 main new barrages and 4 sub-barrages to serve irrigation over ~625,000 hectares across 5 governorates (Assiut, Minya, Beni Suef, Fayoum, Giza) with a new traffic corridor. Funded by JICA, total project cost: 2,180,000,000 EGP.

Responsibilities:

- Supervise and approve all execution methodologies submitted by the contractor
- Review all technical documentation related to the project
- Follow up and respond to correspondence with funding agencies; prepare monthly, quarterly, and financial status reports
- Review and approve contractor payment certificates based on quantities and contract limits
- Coordinate with consultant and contractor

Salama El-Rasheedy Roads & Construction Co. (from 2021 to 2023)

Project: Construction of Wadi El-Noqra Road – Aswan Governorate (Contract No. 120)

Client: General Authority for Roads & Bridges

Position: Senior Roads Engineer

- Managing and executing highway and internal road projects and infrastructure networks.
- Supervising asphalt works (subgrade, sub-base, base, binder, and surface layers).
- Project planning, scheduling, and cost/progress monitoring.
- Coordinating with consultants, clients, and contractors to ensure quality, safety, and compliance with design.
- Leading site teams and resolving technical issues to ensure efficient execution.
- Completing projects within budget and on schedule.

International General Contracting Company (2019 – 2021)

Project: New Tiba City

Client: Ministry of Housing, Utilities & Urban Communities

Consultant: Ministry of Housing Consultant

Position: Construction Manager

Project Details: 50 residential buildings in Luxor (Ground + 5 repeated floors)

Responsibilities:

- Overall supervision of structural and administrative aspects of the project
- Develop general execution strategies and control costs and schedule
- Manage different work teams (Execution – QA/QC – Safety – Planning)
- Monitor project performance and ensure quality objectives are met
- Make high-level decisions regarding technical or financial changes

MEDCOM Project Infrastructure Works for the New Administrative Capital(2017 – 2019)

Consultant: E.C.G (Engineering Consulting Group)

Position: Senior Site Engineer

- - Implementation of the main water line and valve chambers (air valve, gate valve, and mechanical maintenance chambers).
- - Direct site supervision from start to completion with adherence to safety and building codes.
- - Coordination between contractors and site teams to ensure performance and contractual compliance.
- - Supervising project execution from start to finish with compliance to safety and engineering standards.
- - Coordinating contractors and execution teams to ensure performance requirements

MEDCOM – Misr Engineering Development Company (2015 – 2017)

Project: Capital Gardens – Palm Hills Project – 120 Villas / Townhouses

Client: Palm Hills Developments

Consultant: ECG Consultants

Position: Senior Execution Engineer

Responsibilities:

- Direct supervision of site engineers and monitoring performance
- Review execution drawings and resolve technical conflicts
- Prepare quantity surveys and monitor execution schedules
- Coordinate with different departments (Procurement – Stores – Quality)
- Follow up on project milestones according to schedule

MEDCOM – Misr Engineering Development Company (2012 – 2015)

Project: Garden Heights – Hyde Park Project – 200 residential units / 20 blocks

Client: Hyde Park Real Estate Development

Consultant: ECG Consultants

Position: Site Engineer

Responsibilities:

- Supervise site execution according to approved drawings and specifications
- Monitor workforce and subcontractors to ensure quality
- Inspect completed works and submit periodic progress reports
- Coordinate with execution engineers and consultants to resolve technical issues
- Ensure adherence to occupational health and safety rules

MEDCOM – Misr Engineering Development Company (2010 – 2012)

Project: Main Water Network and Irrigation Network – Beni Suef

Client: General Authority for Sanitary Drainage Projects

Consultant: Dar Engineering Consultants

Position: Site Engineer

Responsibilities:

- Direct supervision from project start to completion, ensuring compliance with safety standards and construction codes
- Coordinate contractors and execution teams to meet contractual performance requirements
- Allocate workforce according to project needs